

Inclusivity Credo

Community Living Greater Sudbury believes in the principles of social inclusion, individual choice, independence, and rights for the people we support. We extend this belief to work colleagues, families of people supported and visitors to our facilities.

Community Living Greater Sudbury management and employees foster an atmosphere where every person is respected. We celebrate accomplishments, respect diversity and value one another for individual contributions towards the common goal of supporting the individuals we care for.

Community Living Greater Sudbury embraces diversity, inclusion, and personal development. We respect basic human rights and fundamental freedoms. We share the responsibility of promoting understanding, tolerance, and friendship among people with diverse backgrounds, religious beliefs or sexual orientations.
